

University of Connecticut Professional Employees Association Austin Leadership Scholarship Application

CRITERIA: Based on academic achievement and leadership skills displayed at the University of Connecticut, or in the community, the $1,000 Austin Leadership scholarship is available to dependents of UCPEA members who are full-time students at UConn during the 2021-2022 school year. This scholarship is given in recognition of the leadership of former President Philip Austin and celebrates the outstanding working relationship he fostered with UCPEA during his tenure.

Instructions: Click on the shaded areas below, type your response to each question and print a copy of the completed application.

Name:

Date of birth:

S.S. #:

Home street, city, state, zip code:

Phone number:

School:

Major:

Semester Standing:

G.P.A.:

List activities and leadership positions held at UConn and in the community. Include volunteer work, special awards and recognition.

Name of parent who is UCPEA member:

UCPEA level and job title:

University of Connecticut Professional Employees Association Austin Leadership Scholarship Application

Give three references with addresses and phone numbers.

Extenuating circumstances: In evaluating your application, the scholarship committee should be aware of any extenuating circumstances, such as: a parent who is deceased, disabled or unemployed; unusual medical expenses in the family; and any other unusual financial responsibilities. Please explain.

Please write a 750 word essay. The topic of this essay is: How do you intend to use your leadership potential for the betterment of humankind?

Scholarship forms are due in the UCPEA office by Friday, March 26, 2021.
Scholarship winners will be notified in May 2021.

Please send completed applications to:

Scholarship Committee
ucpeaoffice@ucpea.org